Out of Competition Section

All the films in this section are at the same level as those presented in the competition section however; they will be shown in this section owing to one of the following reasons.

- 1- Not complying with rules & regulations of the competition section.
- 2- The filmmaker or a relevant body is a member of jurors.
- 3- Submission of the competition section might have been closed.

Special Screening

This section is on a non-competitive basis which is meant to pave the way to create a dynamic atmosphere for artists' exchange of experiences and viewpoints. It's also aimed at providing a proper ground for the assessment of Iranian animations in comparison to their foreign counterparts.

A selection of the most outstanding animations from other international festivals and retrospective of the work of a special style or school are the main parts of this section.

Panorama

The Screening of films in this section focuses mainly on the educational and informative aspects of different works with a non-competitive criterion. Introducing new talents, enlightening the role of animation in the advertisement, and a retrospective of a film maker will be among other parts of this section.
